7. Brief description:

An alumni meet is an event where former students of a school, college, or university gather to reconnect with each other and their alma mater. It is a chance to share memories, achievements, and experiences, and to learn about the latest developments and opportunities at their institution. It is also a way to celebrate the diversity and richness of the alumni community and to foster a sense of belonging and pride.

8. Outcome The outcome of the alumni meet celebrated at Department of Botany, Vivekanand College Kolhapur (Autonomous) on 8th May 2022 is as follows:

- The alumni meet was organized by the Department of Botany and the IQAC of the college, with the objective of reconnecting and networking with the former students and faculty members of the department and sharing their academic and professional achievements and experiences.

The chief guest of the event was Prof. S. P. Salokhe, Retd. Head of the Department, who inspired the participants with his insights and wisdom and need for alumni meet.

The president of the event was Dr. B. T. Dangat, the principal of the college, who inaugurated the event and welcomed the alumni and the guests. He also highlighted the achievements and activities of the department and the college and sought the feedback and support of the alumni for its further development and improvement. The opening speech was delivered by him introduced the theme and purpose of the alumni meet and expressed his gratitude to the alumni for their participation and contribution.

- The anchoring of the event was done by Dr. J. M. Gorule, a faculty member of the department, who moderated the interaction and discussion among the alumni and the current students and faculty members of the department.

- The vote of thanks was given by Dr. S. D. Patil, a faculty member of the department, who thanked the chief guest, the president, the speakers, the organizers, the sponsors, and the participants for making the event a successful and fruitful one.

- The alumni meet was attended by around 19 participants, including alumni from various batches and branches of the department, current students and faculty members of the department, and other guests and invitees.

- The alumni meet was interactive and engaging, as the alumni shared their memories, achievements, and experiences, and provided guidance and mentorship to the current students and faculty members of the department. They also expressed their interest and enthusiasm to participate in more such events and activities in the future and to form an alumni association or network that can facilitate regular communication and collaboration among the alumni and the department and the college.

The alumni meet was a successful and fruitful event that enhanced the awareness and appreciation of the participants on the department of botany and its significance for the field of plant sciences and the society at large.
