3. Date: 16/09/2025 Duration: 1 Day
4. Aims and Objectives: The primary aim of the guest lecture on Film Direction and Scriptwriting was to provide students with a comprehensive understanding of the process involved in creating and directing films, along with the essential skills required for scriptwriting. The lecture aimed to inspire creativity and practical knowledge that would help students excel in the field of film and media.
5. No. of beneficiaries: (Participants) 55
6. Expenditure & funding agency/collaborators: Nil Total Expenditure - Nil
7. Brief description: The guest lecture on Film Direction and Scriptwriting was designed to offer both theoretical and practical insights into the art of filmmaking. The session was led by an experienced professional in the industry who shared valuable knowledge on the entire filmmaking process—from initial idea generation and scriptwriting to directing and post-production. The lecture included discussions on key aspects such as character development, screenplay formatting, narrative structure, visual storytelling, and the director's role in bringing the script to life. The session also featured real-world examples and case studies, giving students a first hand view of the challenges and creative decisions filmmakers face during production.
8. Outcomes:
Gained a deeper understanding of the fundamentals of film direction and scriptwriting, enabling them to apply these concepts to their own creative projects. Learned the technical and artistic responsibilities of a film director and how to translate a written script into a visual story. Enhanced their skills in crafting compelling narratives, focusing on character development, plot structure, and dialogue. Developed a greater appreciation for the collaborative nature of filmmaking, recognizing how directors, writers, producers, and actors work together to bring a script to the screen. Were inspired by insights from a professional in the industry, motivating them to pursue further studies or careers in film production, screenwriting, or directing. Participated in a Q&A session, where they could ask specific questions and receive feedback about their own scriptwriting or directing ideas.
