| The primary goal of student mentoring is to help the mentee develop skills, knowledge, and confidence to achieve their academic and personal goals. Mentors typically offer insights, share experiences, and provide constructive feedback to help mentees navigate challenges, make informed decisions, and capitalize on opportunities. | | | |
| * Key aspects of student mentoring include: | | | |
| 1) offering feedback - Mentors provide constructive feedback on mentee's performance, helping them recognize strengths and areas for improvement. | | | |
| 2) providing support - Mentors offer encouragement, guidance, and resources to assist mentees in overcoming obstacles and staying motivated. | | | |
