7. Brief description:

The Department of Botany of Vivekanand College, Kolhapur (Empowered Autonomous), has organized a study tour at Town-hall Garden on 19th October 2024. The study tour was arranged for B. Sc. I Botany students, accompanied by faculties. The oldest garden in Kolhapur is the town hall garden, which is run by the Maharashtra government. Several tree species were brought into the city's gardens by British colonists and Kolhapur Maharajas in the past. The exotic tree species that have been introduced come from a variety of other nations, including Australia, Cuba, America, Africa, Brazil, and the West Indies. Many native, exotic and floral trees have been planted and kept in the garden. There were 151 students signed up for this study tour program. Overall, the visit significantly enriched the students learning experience, bridging the gap between theoretical knowledge and practical application. For this excursion Head of Botany department Dr. B. T. Dangat and their entire staff made significant contributions to the success this visit.

8. Outcomes: (whether the aim achieved):

1. Hands-on learning of sustainable gardening practices .
2. Increased environmental awareness and responsibility.
3. Development of research and observation skills.

One Page Report on Visit to Town-hall Garden

The Department of Botany at Vivekanand College, Kolhapur (Empowered Autonomous) has scheduled a study visit at Town-hall Garden on October 19, 2024. Faculty members accompanied the B. Sc. I. Botany students on the study excursion. The town hall garden, maintained by the Maharashtra government, is Kolhapur's oldest garden. In the past, Kolhapur's Maharajas and British colonists introduced a number of tree species into the city's gardens. Many other countries, including as Australia, Cuba, America, Africa, Brazil, and the West Indies, have contributed exotic tree species. The garden is home to numerous native, exotic, and flowering trees. For this study tour program, 151 students signed up. The success of this tour was greatly aided by the efforts of Dr. B. T. Dangat, Head of the Botany Department, and their whole team.
