- Brief Description:

The Department of Chemistry, Vivekanand College, Kolhapur, organized an study tour at Dandeli, Karnataka to provide students with practical exposure beyond classroom learning. The visit aimed to bridge the gap between theoretical knowledge and real-world industrial applications. Dandeli, situated on the banks of the Kali River, is known for its rich biodiversity, dense forests, wildlife sanctuary, adventure tourism, and industrial importance. Additionally, the group visited the West Coast Paper Mills, one of the largest paper industries in the region, to gain insights into industrial processes and their socio-economic impact on the local community.

8. Outcome:

- The tour improved observation, teamwork, communication, and report-writing skills among participants.
- Overall, the tour helped participants connect classroom knowledge with real-life applications, encouraging critical thinking, problem-solving, and a sense of responsibility towards nature and society.
- The study of West Coast Paper Mills provided knowledge about industrial operations, production processes, and their role in regional economic development.
