Brief Summary

Report on Management Games Activity Conducted by MBA Department

On 9th October 2025, the MBA Department organized an engaging and interactive session on Management Games aimed at providing students with practical exposure to essential business and managerial skills. The activities conducted included the Balloon Race, Building Groups by Similar Balloon Colors, and Tower Building. Each game was thoughtfully designed to replicate real-life business situations that demand effective teamwork, leadership, strategic planning, and sound decision-making.

In the Balloon Race activity, students learned how coordination, speed, and strategy play a crucial role in achieving goals within a limited time frame—reflecting the challenges of competitive business environments. The Group Building by Similar Balloon Colors game emphasized communication, collaboration, and team bonding, highlighting the importance of networking and organizational unity. The Tower Building activity encouraged innovation, creativity, and efficient resource management, teaching participants how to work effectively under pressure and achieve objectives with limited resources.

Overall, the session successfully combined experiential learning with enjoyment, enabling students to develop vital managerial competencies such as leadership, teamwork, time management, problem-solving, and strategic thinking. The activity proved to be a valuable learning experience, bridging the gap between theoretical knowledge and practical business application.
