5	Guest Lecture	19/04/2022
6	Mock Parliament	April

- 3) To discuss the possible titles and topic to be included in the draft syllabus of BA II (Political Science).

The discussion took place on how to go about drafting the BA II (Political Science) syllabus. It was decided to prepare a rough draft for sharing with the BoS members in preparation of the BoS meeting at the end of the year.

- 4) Organising Mock Parliament:

Ms. S. A. Farakate proposed that the department organises a Mock Parliament with participants from across all the academic programmes in the college. The members will be selected through screening. They will be trained in the working of Parliament.

- 5) Conducting a Diagnostic Test for First and Third year

Ms. S. A. Farakate proposed that the department conducts a diagnostic test to identify slow and advanced learners in these years so as to implement different learning programmes for them. The proposal was unanimously adopted.

- 6) Items with the permission of the Chair.

- Planning a tie-up with the Local Self Government Institute in Kolhapur:

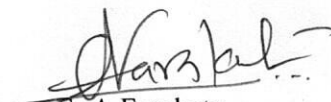

Mr. D. D. Jadhav suggested that we propose and initiate the process of doing a Memorandum of Understanding with National Local Self-government Institute of India, which has a branch in Kolhapur. He proposed that this MoU can help students gain exposure to the actual working of Local Self-government Institutes, and they will also benefit from their career-oriented courses. The proposal was adopted.

- Implementing Mentor-Mentee program for the Third year:

It was decided to divide the students enrolled in TYBA (Political Science) into two parts and allocate them as mentees to the two faculty members of the department. The mentors will guide the students in their career choices, their academic issues at college, their emotional state as last year students stepping into market competition.

As there was no other matter to discuss, the meeting ended with thanks to the chair.
