7. Brief description: Mock Parliament is an effective endeavor to develop multiple skills among students – reading, analysis, note-making, public speaking, confidence, impromptu thinking, presence of mind, leadership. The Mock Parliament was organized by Political Science department but involved the student Parliamentarians from all major Programmes of the college. Announcement was made in the form of coloured brochure narrating what is Mock Parliament and inviting participation. Students from BBA, BCS, B.Sc. Biotechnology, B.Sc. Microbiology, B.Sc., B.Com., B.A. registered through Google form. Some advanced learners were identified by their teachers and suggested to the coordinators.

The preparations started 3 weeks in advance which included meeting every day, watching videos of Lok Sabha sessions, noting the procedural aspects down, looking at Mock Parliament videos. Students then identified the issues to be discussed in the actual session. The teacher prepared the list of items to be undertaken in Mock Parliament. Teachers assisted students with research, encouraged research.

Participating students were divided into Ruling and Opposition. The Sabha Pati, Opposition Leader, Home Finance, Education Minister and Ministers of State were selected through them. This further narrowed their research. In the last phase of preparation, students prepared rough speeches to be delivered. The practice took place for 4 days.

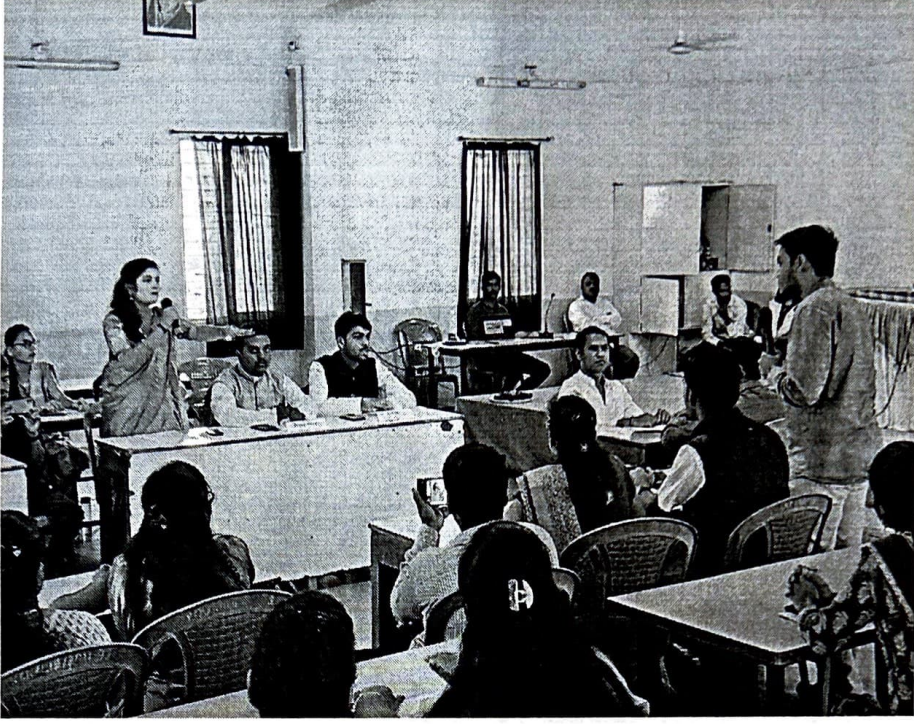

The set-up was made in the Library Hall of the college as per Lok Sabha arrangement. Participants dressed up as Parliamentarians. Student Parliamentarians were studied but also spontaneous during the delivery. Student members did the video shooting of the event.
