B. Sc. I- Study Tour Report- Ratnagiri

Department of Zoology, Vivekanand College, Kolhapur (Empowered Autonomous) had organized one day Study tour for the students of B. Sc. I, on 3rd January 2024 to visit Ratnagiri Marine fish aquarium and museum, Bhatye beach and Thiba palace

Study tour provides students an opportunity to learn an informal environment, during which students observe animals in natural habitat as well in artificial habitat, they learn the biodiversity of animals and understand the importance of conservation animals. It's even more important for college students, who are setting out in an unfamiliar world to grow professionally. Department of Zoology every year organizes study tour for the students to understand the fauna in their natural habitat. The marine fish aquarium and museum of Ratnagiri was established in 1985 by Biological Research Station of Ratnagiri. Bhatye beach is quite known for its calmness and sightseeing view. The unique part of the beach is its sand that is blackish in colour and quite soft.

All the students were directed to gather at gate of Vivekanand College, Kolhapur (Empowered Autonomous) at 5.30 am. Head Department of Zoology Dr. G. K. Sontakke wished all the students best and safe journey. The study tour In-charge was Dr. T. C. Gaupale Assistant professor, Department of Zoology. Student Started journey at 6.00 am by two buses of MSRTC. Student took breakfast at hotel near Chandoli village and then they proceed further to Ratnagiri via Amba Ghat. Students first visited Thiba palace where they observed the museum and took lunch there, After that students visited to marine fish aquarium and museum where they observed variety of aquarium fishes such as gold fish, pearl gourami, swordtail fish and they also observed green turtle, sea anemone, sea cucumber, sea urchin and Skeleton whale.

At 3.30 pm student visited to Bhatye beach which is sandy beach to observe the diversity of marine animals and their natural habitat, on Bhatye beach students observed animals like star fish, hermit crabs bivalves etc. at 6.30 pm students departed from Bhatye beach to Kolhapur via Amba and return journey begins. Students reached at Vivekanand College gate 12.30 am and study tour happily and successfully ends here.
