1. Name of Department: Zoology
2. Name of Organized Activity: Wildlife Week
3. Date/ Duration: 2nd to 8th October, 2024
4. Aims and Objectives:

Aim: To create awareness about wildlife among students and to motivate them to actively participate in the conservation and protection of wildlife.

Objectives:

- i. To raise awareness about the importance of conserving India's rich biodiversity
- ii. To educate students about the role wildlife plays in maintaining ecological balance.

5. No. of beneficiaries:

Sr. No	Students		Total
	Male	Female
1.	173	470	643

6. Expenditure & funding agency: Rs- 8000, Vivekanand College, Kolhapur (Empowered Autonomous)
7. Brief Description:

The Department of Zoology, Vivekanand College, Kolhapur (Empowered Autonomous), organized Wildlife Week 2024 from 2nd to 8th October 2024 for students from the B.A., B.Com., B.Sc., and B.Voc. programs. The primary objective of this week was to raise awareness about wildlife conservation and instill a sense of responsibility towards protecting biodiversity among students. The event was inaugurated by Dr. A. S. Kumbhar, Professor, Department of Chemistry, who marked the occasion with a ribbon-cutting ceremony and the symbolic act of watering a plant highlighting the importance of nurturing nature. Throughout the week, various creative and intellectual competitions were conducted, which saw enthusiastic participation from students: Rangoli Competition- 19 participants, Animal Photography-33 participants, Craft Model-5 participants, Essay Writing- 19 participants, Speech Competition-12 participants, Poster Presentation- 14 participants, Quiz Competition- 17 participants, Short Film- 10 participants, Face and Hand Painting -15 participants. One of the key highlights of the week was an insightful guest lecture by Ms. Punam Pratap Patil on the topic “Need and Importance of Wildlife Conservation”. She discussed critical issues such as hunting, poaching, and the need to protect endangered species, stressing the importance of wildlife conservation for ensuring a sustainable future. A total of 643 students and faculty benefited from various events and sessions conducted during Wildlife Week. The celebrations concluded with a prize distribution ceremony, where Prof. S. P. Thorat presented trophies and certificates to winners and participants, recognizing their creativity, enthusiasm, and involvement. The entire event was successfully organized under the able guidance of Dr. G. K. Sontakke, Head, Department of Zoology. The dedicated efforts of the teaching and non-teaching staff contributed immensely to the grand success of Wildlife Week 2024.

8. Outcomes:

- i. Students developed a deeper understanding of the importance of wildlife in maintaining ecological balance.
- ii. Students gained awareness about the need for wildlife conservation and the threats posed by human activities such as poaching and habitat destruction.
- iii. Students were encouraged to apply their knowledge to spread awareness within the community, promoting responsible behavior and active participation in conservation efforts.
