Report

One Day workshop on “Blood and Platelet Donation Awareness”

In collaboration with NGOs – SHED, Satyam Foundation, OpEx & IHO and Roche

Venue: Library Hall

Date :05/05/2022

“Blood donation is a small act of kindness that cost nothing but mean the world to the needy and does big and great wonders”. Department of Zoology, Vivekanand College, Kolhapur (Autonomous) has organized one day workshop on “Blood and Platelet Donation Awareness” in collaboration with NGOs – SHED, Satyam Foundation, OpEx & IHO nation powered by Roche diagnostics on 5th May, 2022 at 2.00 pm to 5 pm. The objective of this workshop was to assess and increase the student’s awareness and attitude towards blood donation Increasing people’s awareness of blood donation and promoting a positive attitude towards blood donation are among the top priorities of national blood transfusion centers. One of the first steps in achieving these goals is to conduct awareness and change attitude towards blood donation. The low awareness and negative attitude towards blood donation can be considered as important factors contributing to the lack of interest and poor participation in blood donation among this population. Therefore, there is a critical need for activities and programs in order to increase students’ awareness and improve their attitude towards blood donation.

Respected Dr. B. T. Dangat Sir, Head & Assistant professor, Department of Botany, Vivekanand College, Kolhapur (Autonomous), was a president of this workshop and Resource person for the workshop was Mr. Vishwajeet Kashid, Goodwill Ambassador for platelet Donation, India & team.
