7.	Brief Discussion	Positive thinking alone is not sufficient to achieve aims and goals. To recognize oneself as a successful person, one must have motivated positive effort and positive action. The 21st century is characterized by intense competition, making it challenging to seize opportunities. However, everyone should be fully prepared to face this competition. Channelized study, hard work, and patriotism are necessary to join the Indian defense services. Indian defense service not only provides good job opportunities but also inculcate the sense of comradeship, coordination, characterized citizenship, and disciplined leadership. Lt. Col. Sanjeev Sarnaik expressed this viewpoint, emphasizing that the NCC cadet period is a golden time for self-molding to achieve goals. The chairperson of this function, the honorable Principal Dr S.Y. Hongekar, expressed the opinion that Vivekanand College is one of the leading educational institutions in India, supplying well-trained youth to society. These individuals are now working in various fields across the globe. For this function, 31 SD and 57 SW cadets were present, along with Captain Sunita Bhosale and Lieutenant J.R. Bharamgonda.
8.	Outcomes	<ul style="list-style-type: none">The cadets motivated towards the defense forces to make their career .

		<ul style="list-style-type: none">The cadets got the study path to face successfully the AFCAT examination.
