In honour of the freedom fighters, activists, and members of social organizations who sacrificed their lives for the nation, various nationwide activities are being carried out by the defence ministry. As part of these activities, our NCC unit organized a visit to SainikTakali, a village of soldiers in Kolhapur district, which has witnessed a significant number of sacrifices by freedom fighters. This village holds historical importance as it has contributed to a large number of youths recruited into the defence forces to serve the nation after independence. During the visit, NCC cadets had the opportunity to interact with soldiers who fought in wars against China and Pakistan in 1962, 1965, 1971, and 1999. The purpose was to learn about their sacrifices and understand the spirit of martyrdom. The program was guided by Dr R. R. Kumbhar, the Principal, Col. R. B. Holla, and Col. Tiwari, the Commanding Officer of 5 and 6 Maharashtra Battalion NCC, Kolhapur. Ninety-six cadets actively participated in the program and engaged in meaningful interactions with the esteemed guests. The event was organized by Captain SunitaBhosale and Lieutenant JitendraBharamgonda.
