7.	Brief Discussion	The Indian Central Government has introduced various economic, social, and political policies to address the challenges created by the lockdown restrictions. Many small and medium-sized entrepreneurs, industrialists, and traders have been adversely affected. The Indian economy has faced challenges compared to other nations at the international level, and there is a risk of an increasing trend of foreign goods in our society. To counter this trend and boost demand for local products, the government has announced the "BE VOCAL ABOUT LOCAL" policy. In support of this initiative, NCC cadets have taken a pledge to use domestically made goods. A hundred NCC candidates participated in an online pledge-taking event through the Disha app. The program was conducted under the guidance of , Col. R.B. Holla, and Col. Tiwari, and coordinated by Captain SunitaBhosale and Lieutenant JitendraBharamgonda.
8.	Outcomes	<ul style="list-style-type: none">·The cadets decided to purchase or goods of indigenious or local made.·The cadets knew the importance of giving priority to purchase the products made up of local entrepreneurs.·The cadets decided to be a entrepreneur in future for to boost our local economy .
