7.	Brief Discussion	The society comprises various social and economic layers, where economically and socially weaker sections face deprivation due to unfair social practices and a lack of responsibility within family structures. Senior citizens often suffer neglect and both governmental and non-governmental organizations play a crucial role in providing support. Orphanages and shelter houses like EKI ORPHAN HOUSES administered by the Kolhapur Municipal Corporation, serve as a refuge for those in need. In light of the dynamic changes in the social structure of the 21st century, the younger generation sometimes struggles to shoulder the responsibility of caring for the elderly. Recognizing this the NCC department organized the distribution of clothes, food materials, and medicines to orphans residing in EKI ORPHAN HOUSES. These children affected by the challenges posed by the COVID-19 pandemic and severe floods in Kolhapur need financial assistance. NCC cadets from our institute took the initiative to collect funds, food

		materials and medicines to address the daily needs and health concerns of the orphans. This program was executed under the guidance of Principal Dr. R. R. Kumbhar, Col. Manjunath Hegde, Col. Ganapati (the commanding officers of 5 and 6 Maharashtra NCC battalion, Kolhapur) and was successfully managed by Captain Sunita Bhosle and Lieutenant Jitendra Bharamgonda along with their 96 cadets.
8.	Outcomes	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Cadets willingly contributed their extra pocket money to support the weaker sections of society. • They developed qualities of compassion and assistance for orphans and the deprived. • Cadets aimed to create awareness within their families and friend circles to emphasize the importance of caring for senior citizens.
