7.	Brief Discussion	National integration is the togetherness and oneness felt by the citizens (even though different in caste, creed, religion, culture, language and region, etc). Sardar Patel's effort for the national integration is completely uncompromising in order to make a one nation that is India. The following are the important elements of national integration: Democracy, Fundamental rights, Fundamental duties, The unified justice system, Secularism, Common national emblems. National festivals. Active and energetic propagation of the principles, especially of tolerance and harmony for which this nation stands. The program was conducted on Google meet platform with the help of Computer Science department. The mainspeaker of the program were Prof. DilipKumarPowar of Political Science. The program was successfully conducted under guidance of Capt. Sunita Bhosale.
8.	Outcomes	<ul style="list-style-type: none">Cadets got a brief information about Indian Constitution.They developed a sense of national integration and an understanding of the role in it.
