7.	Brief Discussion	India is a widespread nation with a variety of religions, castes, creeds, ethnic groups, and languages. People from different castes and creeds have a variety of traditions and customs. They worship their gods according to their own faith. One of the biggest festivals celebrated throughout India is the Ganesh festival. The worship of the Ganesh festival starts from Ganesh Chaturthi and ends on AnantChaturthi. Non-government organizations and social organizations establish Ganpati idols at different places. On the day of AnantChaturthi, the immersion of the Ganpati idol is done through long Holy marches. It is very difficult for local government agencies, like the state police department, to regulate the march without any disturbance. The NCC department has assisted the police department during the immersion of Ganpati idols on different paths in Kolhapur city. They have helped the police department in regulating traffic and maintaining control at the point of Ganpati idol immersion. The NCC cadets successfully assisted the state police under the guidance of Principal Dr. RR Kumbhar, Col. RB Hota, Col. Tiwari Di (company officers of 5 and 6 Maharashtra NCC battalion Kolhapur). This activity was successfully managed by Captain Sunita Bhosle and Lieutenant J.R. Bharamgonda with 60 cadets.
