7.	Brief Discussion	India gained independence in 1947, leading to the division of the Indian subcontinent into India, East Pakistan, and West Pakistan. This separation created religious crises and ongoing struggles, especially with neighboring countries like East and West Pakistan. India faced conflicts with East and West Pakistan in 1947, 1962, and 1971, leading to tensions along the borders in regions like Jammu and Kashmir and West Bengal. In the 1971 Indo-Pak War, tensions escalated due to East Pakistan seeking separation. Maratha Light Infantry played a crucial role, raising its separate unit, the 16 Maratha Light Infantry Battalion, during the war. The golden jubilee year of its raising day is celebrated in December 2022. The unit has actively engaged in awareness programs, emphasizing sacrifice and dedication to the nation during emergencies. Lieutenant Mayank Nanavare conducted a cyclotron across Maharashtra and Karnataka to raise awareness. The program, guided by Principal Dr. R. R. Kumbhar, Colonel , and Colonel Ganpati, the commanding officer of 5th and 6th Maharashtra NCC Battalion Kolhapur, was successfully managed by Captain Sunita Bhosle and Lieutenant Jitendra Bharamgonda, with the participation of 90 cadets.

8.	Outcomes	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• NCC cadets expressed honor and respect for defense personnel.• They gained an understanding of how Indian army units are raised based on the necessities of the time.
