7.	Brief Discussion	India achieved independence through significant struggles, with citizens sacrificing their lives for freedom. The recent celebration of the platinum jubilee of Indian independence highlighted the immense sacrifices made by thousands of individuals. In homage to these martyrs, all faculty and students observed a 2-minute silence. To further commemorate and instil a sense of nationality the government has designated Martyrs Day. The NCC department organized a program under the guidance of Principal Dr. R. R. Kumbhar, Colonel Manjunath Hegde, and Colonel Ganpati from the 5th and 6th Maharashtra NCC Battalion in Kolhapur. The program was managed by Captain Sunita Bhosale and Lieutenant Jitendra Bharamgonda, with the participation of 90 NCC cadets and students.
8.	Outcomes	<ul style="list-style-type: none">NCC cadets have incorporated yoga and Pranayama into their daily routines.They have encouraged their family and friends to engage in yoga practices.They have committed to participating in all government-announced public events.
